Kia ora, Talofa lava, Kia orana,
Good afternoon everyone,

Good afternoon everyone.

Staff are getting well and truly into their class programmes with lots of interesting activities being planned.

A reminder that next Wednesday, there will be no school as teachers are taking part in strike action to try and get the government to provide more resources for our children, to provide more teachers, provide support for them to do their job and give a pay jolt to help keep teachers in the profession.

(note: OSCAR will be open so contact them directly if you need your child minded).

Our teachers deserve better conditions so they can better provide for our students.

Mrs Ellis is still away but she is making pleasing progress and is getting much better. We are wishing her all the best and hope that she has a speedy recovery so we can see her back at school.

In the meantime, Mrs Pam Kyle will be in Room 7 until Marg comes back.

Thanks everyone who supported the RSS Movie Fundraiser last week. It was a great success and a fantastic movie as well. Thanks to Kelly and her team for organising it.

Thanks also to the people who supported the TARGA rally last weekend. This was a great fundraising effort. Thanks to Nic for organising this.

We sincerely appreciate all the support provided to us.

I was very fortunate to take our School Leaders to the Leaders Conference in Palmerston North yesterday. The conference was all about knowing that every single person is capable of making a difference. It was also about finding out how to help people grow. When we talk, share our ideas, dreams and questions with each other, we start the kind of talk that can change the world.

when we korero we listen, when we korero we learn, when we korero we can lead.

Next Tuesday, we have the Duffy Theatre visiting. All children will experience this fantastic show.

A reminder that if you have any queries or questions, please come in and see us. We want to help.

Have a great week everyone!

Please refer to our calendar for further events.
