He is an important figure in our iwi and someone we aspire to be like.

Let's have a peek into our ESOL classroom... What have you got to share with us this week?

We have done some amazing work at E.S.O.L. this year, despite the interruption of Covid-19.
We have made collapsing boxes telling you all about ourselves, where we come from and our goals for the year.
We have also made 'Heart Books' about our feelings, an excellent way for the children to express their emotions - especially with what they have gone through over the past few months.
I am very proud (as they are of themselves), of their first class work....
